

Lake Country Art & Garden Tour

July 25, 2020

Genetti Gardens & Gallery

Genetti Gardens & Gallery began two decades ago when Joeann Genetti arranged plants and sculpture in her Wisconsin gardens. As an iron artist and working horticulturist, she's a master in designing specialty gardens. Visit Genetti Gardens to experience the love and wisdom Joeann brings to her garden and her art.

611 Bleeker Street, Delafield, WI 53018

Learn more at GenettiGardens.com

Stone Bank Farm Market

Housed in a century-old church nestled on three acres of vegetable gardens and surrounded by 75 acres of protected Wisconsin farmland, Stone Bank Farm Market opened in May of 2017. The market offers high-quality, locally grown food while promoting sustainable, organic farming practices. The market grows its own vegetables, herbs and flowers without pesticides, fertilizer or genetically modified seeds. Open year-round, the market offers local produce, dairy products, poultry and grass-fed beef, as well as artisanal foods to the community.

N68 W33208 County Road K, Stone Bank, WI 53066

Learn more at StoneBankMarket.com

Inn at Pine Terrace

A luxury bed and breakfast nestled in the heart of Lake Country, the Inn at Pine Terrace was built as a summer residence in 1879 as a grand cream city brick home for the two brothers, Peter and Henry Schuttler. The brothers' modeled their home on the design of a French nobleman's castle near Vienna. In 1986, the owners invested more than 1.5 million dollars to restore the inn. Since then, Inn at Pine Terrace has operated as a bed and breakfast. It's one of the finest and largest of the Victorian mansions still standing in Oconomowoc today and is listed on the national Register of Historic Places.

351 E. Lisbon Road, Oconomowoc, WI 53066

Learn more at InnAtPineTerrace.com

Jaegersberg Garden

A private home garden in Sussex surprises visitors as they pass through the home's side gardens to view the back patio's expansive elevated plantings complemented by original art with a forest playground beyond. These elements meld into a unique garden oasis – not your typical suburban backyard. The visual elements offer a welcome respite from the summer's heat with splashes of color and whimsical touches.

N72W24147 Craven Drive, Sussex, WI 53089

Bob and Merianne Zimmerman

Discover multiple waterfalls and pathways as you wind through this large and beautiful garden where you'll view a child's log cabin, a pier overlooking a pond, and a patio for sitting and viewing the gardens – especially welcome for non-walking guests.

N19W27033 Fieldhack Dr. Pewaukee, WI 53072

Barbara Kelsey

Enjoy three terraced organic vegetable gardens that surprise guests in this city garden. Flowers surround the property to promote pollination, with arches and garden features to delight your senses.

355 Stone Court, Pewaukee, WI 53072

Hawks Inn and Delafield History Center

Step back a century or two and discover Hawks Inns' rich historical period garden and art exhibit. Nestled between the Delafield History Center and Hawks Inn, you'll find a lovely pocket park to explore. Then, step inside the History Center to enjoy an exhibit featuring mid-20th century artist Emily Parker Groom's paintings. Back outside, you'll explore gardens artistically planted to complement Emily's artwork – like zinnias, petunias and begonias in many shades of pink, Emily's favorite color. Interspersed with the colorful flowers, you also discover types of traditional vegetables Mrs. Hawks grew in her 1850's kitchen garden.

426 Wells Street, Delafield, WI 53018

Learn more at hawksinn.org

Jen Herro

Visitors entering this restored 1860's property will first notice the historic home and potting shed that border Jen Herro's lovingly tended perennial gardens. Jen is passionate about her plants, mainly selected to benefit birds, butterflies, bees and other pollinators while nurturing them using organic gardening methods. Feel free to linger here feeling the solace and joy that this garden brings to both humans and wildlife.

Jen's bright painting studio is open for a tour as well.

W314N7048 State Road 83, Hartland, WI 53029

Julie and Chris Szyba Garden

Gardens are a peaceful place to get lost and connect with nature. From poppies to peonies, to hostas and hydrangeas, this one acre property boasts a sense of wild and whimsy. Find a backyard cottage and collection of iron yard art. Stop here, relax for a few minutes. We will put out lemonade and tell you fun stories about our rock gardens.

1051 Main Street, Delafield, WI 53018

Shelley Mehmert

Flanked by prairie grasses, bursting with color from carefully tended perennial beds, and boasting beautiful blooms from annual pots and container gardens, this homestead is a sight to behold. But head down to the vegetable garden for the true delight! Explore a bountiful harvest in a lush organic garden that showcases Shelley's true passion for farm-to-table gardening. Creative raised beds and hand-planted rows display lush lettuces, trailing edible flowers, heirloom tomatoes, artisan potatoes, climbing spinaches – and much more!

N35W28364 Taylors Woods Road, Pewaukee, WI 53072